

GEARHEAD GAZZETTE

VOL No. 10

FEBRUARY 2010

ISSUE No. 2

EDITOR: JIM BRANDAU PUBLISHED: WHENEVER I CAN DO BUT MONTHLY MOST OF THE TIME...HA!!

ROAD RUMBLINGS...

Greeting Gearheads!

As I look out from the top floor of our headquarters, it's a cold snowy morning here in Middle Tennessee as this issue gets finished up. We haven't had this much snow and ice since 2003. Good thing is, by the next weekend it will all be gone.

Speaking of snow, check out the super slick snowmobile in the "COOL HAPPENINGS IN YOUR GARAGE" section. As they used to say at Disneyland..."that's an 'E' ticket ride!!

If its February in Middle Tennessee, that means its time for the Stone's River AACA annual swap meet at the Tennessee State fairgrounds. Check the "EVENTS LISTING" section for all the details. Suffice to say, it's a biggy and a good one to check out. If nothing else but to see everyone and say hi. Come early, check it out and you can still make it home in time for the Super Bowl Kickoff.

Thanks goes out to another of our GEARHEAD buddies, Jimmy Lowe for sending in info on his new website. Check out www.oldrustinweeds.com for some very cool pics and stuff to check out. He has it up and going and adding to it all the time. Don't just hit the site 1 time, check back on it to see the latest adds. We like it so much, we have added it to our "COOL LINKS TO THE WORLD WIDE WEB" section.

While you're on the PC checking out "car stuff" cause its cold and snowy outside, be sure to check out www.wolfmotorsportsmagazine.com. Publisher/Editor Jeff Wolf has the new issue out for your reading pleasure.

January saw 2 long time indoor shows take place. The FROSTY WHEELS show was held at the Williamson Ag Expo center at the beginning of January. Nasty weather took its toll on John McGee and his show. Not all the entries showed up and the crowd stayed home due primarily to crummy weather all weekend. Not a lot of vendors showed up. John and his team put forth a lot of effort and time to making this show fun, but for the last 2-3 years they have gotten bit hard by the crummy weather bug. I had my fair share of folks talking to me about how this one is dying a slow death. Let's hope not!!

Nashville Auto Fest saw a better weather situation in mid January for their show. Saturday morning saw a long line out the door with show goers waiting to get in. Inside all the buildings of the Tennessee State Fairgrounds were filled with show cars, swappers and shoppers. Had a car corral outside also with a fair amount of traffic checking out some of the rides for sale.

If you didn't make those 2 GEARHEAD deals last month, you can always check out the HOT ROD ALLEY Hot Rod museum in Lebanon Tn. Located in "THE MILL" right off the square, is a very cool museum dedicated to Hot Rods and Hot Rod stuff. Get out of your Lazy-Boy and head over HOT ROD ALLEY and have you some mid-winter fun.

At the back of this issue I have added in a couple of special articles for you to peruse and enjoy. 1st up is an article on Jan Gabriel. Who is that you say? If you're a drag racing fan, especially from the Midwest, back in the 60's, 70's and beyond, for a long time during the summer you heard " SUNDAY SUNDAY SUNDAY" blaring out of your radio, inviting you to see the best that drag racing had to offer at a drag strip near you. Jan came up with the whole deal that was copied by a lot of folks. Read the article....very nice tribute to the man.

HOT ROD POWER TOUR. I believe most everyone knows about it, has read about it and some of you have even driven in it. Guess what?? Its going to make a stop right in our back yard if you will. On Tuesday June 8th, HOT ROD POWER TOUR comes to Bowling Green Ky. Holley Performance Products will host day 5 of the tour. The event stop over will take place at the Bowling Green/Warren County Regional Airport. They are anticipating 2000-4000 HOT RODS driving into and onto the runways. They are planning Vintage Aircraft displays, static displays, old tractors, hot air balloons and more. At the back of this issue, I have attached a lot of info for everyone to check out if you are interested in attending. C Ya There!!

The next issue of THE GAZZETTE will be coming to you from the Detroit Autorama. I will be going along / helping Paul Shauck as he shows his 1933 FORD aka "The Smokin Bones Coupe" at the Detroit Autorama for the first time!! The last minute thrash is on at HOT RODS & THREADS to finish up all the stuff that needs doin' to show the car...the right way. After Detroit it will be on to Chicago for the WORLD OF WHEELS. Wish Paul well, as he has busted his butt to build a killer ride. I am prejudice....but this one is TOO BITCHIN'!!!!!!!!!!

Check out all the new show and cruise nite listings. Keep the info coming!!

Until next issue..."FLOOR IT AND HANG ON!!!!" We're doin' it again in 2010!!

Jimmy B.

As always, if you want the GAZZETTE direct instead of forwarded 2nd hand, let us know. All you need to do is send me an email at gearheadgazzette@aol.com. You can also always check out the current issue of the GAZZETTE on line at www.gearheadgazzette.com

“Remember...we're here for a good time...not a long time...Enjoy the Ride”.

In Memoriam: Jan Gabriel 1940 – 2010: He died on a Sunday....Drag-strip radio ad announcer famous for 'Sunday Sunday Sunday'.

For those of us who followed drag racing back in the 60's & 70's, in the heyday as some say, you were sure to here Jan's voice in a commercial for an upcoming race. While others have been given credit for coming up with the ad campaign that caught every fans attention and brought them out to the races. I know it worked for me!! Click on the link here or copy it and paste in your browser address line and read the story. Worth the read!!

Media Release

Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour[®] to Travel from Midwest to Deep South for 2010.

The Bowling Green/Warren County Airport in Bowling Green, KY will host the Holley Performance Products stop of the 16th Annual Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour June 8th.

(Bowling Green, KY) The 16th Annual Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour will wind its way through car-crazy towns throughout the US, June 5 through June 12, 2010 including Bowling Green, KY Tuesday, June 8th. The Hot Rod Power Tour is considered the ultimate road trip for thousands of performance car lovers who every year literally count the days until the 7-cities-in-7-days tour begins. The Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour kicks off June 5th at the Iowa Speedway in Newton, IA. From there, the Tour will work its way south through mid-America before finishing near the Gulf of Mexico in Mobile, AL. On Tuesday, June 8th Holley Performance Products will host Day 5 of the 7-day, 7-city Tour at the Bowling Green/Warren County Regional Airport and the Power Tour will focus a nationwide buzz in the automotive aftermarket industry on the city of Bowling Green, KY.

“The Bowling Green Area Convention & Visitors Bureau is proud to host the Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour,” said Vicki Fitch, Executive Director of the Bowling Green Area Convention & Visitors Bureau. “We are continuously looking for new and exciting events to bring to our great city. Hosting a Power Tour stop is an excellent opportunity to showcase the vast diversity of attractions that Bowling Green has to offer. This event will give visitors the ability to experience the different flavors of the community.”

Over 4,500 participating cars and 65,000 spectators are expected for the Tour. At each stop along the way, over 80 premiere automotive and aftermarket manufacturers will set up a travelling performance fair with booths and displays of everything on the car enthusiast's wish list. The event traditionally will leave a $1.2 million economic impact on a kickoff city including hotel room nights, event participants filling up at area gas stations, eating at local restaurants, etc.

Rob Barnett, Airport Manager of Bowling Green/Warren County Regional Airport said, “We are proud to be a part of the 2010 Hot Rod Power Tour. It will be a wonderful partnership – a prestigious magazine with a great following, a great state and city offering the finest Kentucky hospitality, and a fantastic venue offering 75+ acres of space to host Hot Rod's signature event.

The legend of the Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour grows with each year through the extensive coverage in Hot Rod, videos from the tour posted at www.HotRod.com and featured on Hot Rod Television on SPEED channel. But the really tall tales of the road that have built the iconic status of the Tour have spread word-of-mouth through the thousands of enthusiasts who have driven their beloved rides to a stop or perhaps even completed the revered “Long Haul” of every mile. Here is the American car lovers dream come to life: with sightseeing, exploring back roads, sharing tales of the Tour with fellow participants, and becoming stars-for-the-day in each car-crazy town along the route. In every city, huge crowds of spectators spend the day at the Tour sites enjoying a free stroll among one of the world's finest rolling displays of all makes and models of high-end hot rods, street rods, custom trucks, muscle cars, sport compacts, and street machines.

Bill Tichenor, Marketing Manager for Holley Performance Products said, "We were excited to hear that Hot Rod Magazine's signature event was coming straight through our home town, so it was a natural fit for us to sponsor the Bowling Green stop. It truly is one of the premier events in our industry. Power Tour participants are hard core, yet grassroots enthusiasts. We use our involvement to keep up with the latest trends and get to know our customers first hand. Holley has a lot of new products for 2010 and because the tour moves between seven venues in new cities each year, it gives us the chance to meet people we may not see at other automotive events."

Hot Rod Publisher Jerry Pitt said, "The Power Tour is almost a religious experience for all of us at the magazine. The adrenaline rush of meeting our readers, seeing the endless variety of car creations (many inspired by the magazine's articles), and leading the most awe-inspiring parade of cool cars through town after town—well, there is nothing that even comes close for us. On the Power Tour, Hot Rod comes to life--literally! For 2010 we'll wind our way through some of the most beautiful countryside's in America. Every day, a new vista will fill our windshields. We'll begin in the nation's breadbasket, and then wander through Bluegrass Country to the mountains of Tennessee, then on through the Deep South before ending up in the beautiful Gulf port of Mobile. We can't wait to meet everyone in Newton, start checking out the rides, and get rolling down the road!"

In spite of recession year, 2009 set a record for Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour participation. Even bigger numbers are expected for 2010 tour.

In 2009, many thought the Hot Rod Magazine Power Tour would suffer due to the sharp recession and daily gloom-and-doom news stories about the U.S. economy. However, Power Tour participants signed up and showed up in unprecedented numbers. Most said that the reason is simple: some things are just too important and too much fun to give up, no matter what the economy. Now that conditions are improving and the recession is abating, Hot Rod Power Tour officials expect to up the record again in 2010 in terms of participants and spectators.
